

Ryan Mills

Co-Founder & Chief Strategy Officer
Elementl Power

Profile

Ryan Mills is Co-Founder and Chief Strategy Officer of Elementl Power, where he leads the company's strategic initiatives supporting the development and deployment of safe, affordable next-generation nuclear projects. He brings experience spanning corporate strategy, energy capital and M&A, and nuclear operations.

Professional History

Prior to co-founding Elementl Power in 2022, Mills co-founded Breakwater North, a private investment and advisory firm focused on mid-market acquisition and growth opportunities. Previously, he spent more than five years in Goldman Sachs' Investment Banking Division, where he focused on energy M&A and capital markets advisory in the natural resources sector. He served as both vice president and associate, advising clients on strategic and financial transactions.

Mills served as a surface warfare officer in the United States Navy for five years and is a qualified Naval Nuclear Engineer.

Education

Mills holds a Master of Business Administration from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and a bachelor's degree in Mechanical Engineering from the United States Naval Academy.
